The Most Important Things to Teach Your Children

By Dan Jenkins

(Taken from the Chouteau Hills Bulletin)

She was expecting her first child. She & Joseph realized that this child was a gift from God. They were only caretakers with the responsibility to train up the child [Proverbs 22:6], so He could be given back to God.

Mary, mother of Jesus, asked herself the same question all 'Christian' parents should ask... "What values do I teach this child to prepare Him for life and possible trails that lie ahead?" Two examples of training for children can be found in Matthew 4:1-11.

A child must be taught the meaning of life.

Satan appealed to Jesus to live the rule of self-gratification. Jesus had learned one important truth in His upbringing...."It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but the every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'" [verse 4] If one lives by self-gratification, he missus life. Understand that every word which God speaks gives life!

A child must be taught that God is more important that material things.

The Lord was offered all the treasures of this world, but those who trained Him for live put in His heart'.... You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve." [verse 10] When one craves material things, they become his lord and he serves them. A child must know that materialism cannot be his master!

Satan's misuse of the Bible did not confuse Jesus, because He did not just know about God, He KNEW God. Parents, you have the grave responsibility to guide your children into eternity. Prepare your child for life by teaching him to know God and to love & obey His Word.

Attitude

(taken from the Preacher's PC by Tom Moore, Hamilton, TX)

A little boy was overheard talking to himself as he strutted through the backyard, wearing his baseball cap and toting a ball and bat. "I'm the greatest hitter in the world," he announced. Then he tossed the ball into the air, swung at it, and missed. "Strike One!" he yelled. Undaunted, he picked up the ball and said again, "I'm the greatest hitter in the world!" He tossed the ball into the air. When it came down, he swung again and missed. "Strike Two!" he cried.

The boy then paused a moment to examine his bat and ball carefully. He spit on his hands and rubbed them together. He straightened his cap and said once more, "I'm the greatest hitter in the world!" Again he tossed the ball up in the air and swung at it. He missed. "Strike Three! Wow!" the boy exclaimed. "I'm the greatest pitcher in the world!"

Your attitude determines how circumstances impact your life. The little boy's circumstances hadn't changed, but his optimistic attitude prompted him to give an encouraging meaning to what had happened.

What difficult time are you going through right now? Can you do something to change it? If you can, don't wait another day-make the needed changes. If you can't change the circumstance, however, change your attitude - you'll discover that circumstances won't have the last word.

Paul said, "Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therein to be content. I know how to be abased, and I know also how to abound: in everything and in all things have I learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in want. I can do all things in him that strengtheneth me" (Phil. 4:11-13).
