"Taking Our Blessings For Granted"

(Taken from "The Preachers PC" by Tom Moore, Hamilton, TX)

A story is told of Abraham Lincoln. One day the President summoned to the White House a surgeon in the Army of the Cumberland from the state of Ohio. The major assumed that he was to be commended for some exceptional work. During the conversation Mr. Lincoln asked the major about his widowed mother. "She is doing fine," he responded. "How do you know," asked Lincoln. "You haven't written her. But she has written me. She thinks that you are dead and she is asking that a special effort be made to return your body." At that the Commander and Chief placed a pen in the young doctor's hand and ordered him to write a letter letting his mother know that he was alive and well.

Oh, the blessings that we take for granted. Oh, the wretchedness of ingratitude. It was Shakespeare who worded it very appropriately: "Blow blow thou winter wind. Thou art not so unkind as man's ingratitude."

"In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God" (Phil. 4:6; ASV). "And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful" (Col. 3:15). Be thankful in word and deed. Do not take your blessings for granted. And, be thankful year round.
