FOR OUR SALVATION

Charles Coats

The ultimate desire of God is that all men be saved (Acts 17:30). To make this possible, God made a plan by which all could be saved, if they only desire it for themselves.

The first part of this plan involved the sacrifice for our sins. Jesus died on the cross that we might have the opportunity to be saved (Heb. 10:4-10). It is by his death that all can be reconciled to God (Eph. 2:16). This does not assure our salvation as the death of Christ enjoins upon us obedience (2 Cor. 5:15).

The next part of the plan is the plan itself. God has put forth a simple plan that, if followed, will bring us to salvation. By God’s plan, we are to hear the word (Acts 10:33), believe God’s word (Mk. 16:16), repent (Acts 3:19), confess the name of Christ (Acts 8:37), and have our sins washed away in baptism (Acts 22:16; 1 Pet. 3:21). At this point, we become new creatures in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17). Our sins have been remitted and we are now saved (Acts 2:47). Following this, we must continue to live faithfully for God (1 Cor. 15:58; Rev. 2:10), and confess our wrongs when we commit them (Jas. 5:16; 1 Jn. 1:9).

Now that Christ has died for us and God has given us his plan, the part that is missing is our obedience to the plan. Those who gladly received the word were baptized on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:41). The Roman brethren became Christians when they obeyed the message delivered to them (Rom. 6:17). A message unheeded is a message that is ineffective to us. Not that the message is not a good message, but its benefits can only be enjoyed when one obeys the message. God demands our obedience in order for us to be saved (Phil. 2:12).

Obedience to any other “plan” will not bring us to salvation. Man teaches us what they think will save us, but if it is not what God has taught us in his word, it is the wrong plan. Since there is only one way to Heaven (Jn. 14:6; Matt. 7:13,14), then we must not listen to man, but we must listen to God.

Our obedience is essential to our salvation. If we are not Christians, we need to submit to God’s plan to have our sins washed away. If we are Christians, we need to confess our faults so God will forgive us.

God expects his word to be preached (1 Cor. 1:21), because it is his power to salvation (Rom. 1:16). Obey today that message that will save our souls.
