Thoughts from the Preacher

“When...”

One of the challenges of life is to finish things. Schedules and other events sometimes are allowed to prevent us from accomplishing things. However, are not some things worth our time?

When You Thought I Wasn't Looking

By Kyle Campbell

We have a lot of people who look to us as examples, but we should never forget about our children, who are the closest ones to which we are an example. Jesus said, “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 5:16). From today onward, think what happens when you are not looking. To help you, consider what happens from the standpoint of a child:

- When you thought I wasn't looking, I heard you say a prayer, and I knew there is a God I could always talk to and I learned to trust in God.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make a meal and take it to someone who was sick, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you give of your time and money to help people who had nothing and I learned that those who have something should give to those who don't.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you take care of our house and everyone in it and I learned we have to take care of what God has given us.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good and I learned that I have to be responsible when I grow up.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw that you cared and I wanted to be everything that I could be.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I learned most of life's lessons that I need to know to be a good and fruitful Christian when I grow up.

Ephesians 5:8 says, “For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.” We can never forget the smallest ones among us who see our influence. Each of us (parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, church member, teacher or friend) influence the life of a child. How will you influence one today?
