Thoughts from the Preacher

“Dedication”

Dedication is defined as “the quality of being dedicated or committed to a task or purpose”.

Sadly, it is common for people today to lack dedication.

The Christian however must remain dedicated and committed to Him and His Word.

How is your dedication to God?

NINE LEPERS PLUS ONE

By Jesse Dickison

In Luke 17 one leper came back to thank Jesus. I wonder what the others might have said when they got home that night.

Leper # 1: “You’re not going to believe what happened! I met this man and he healed me! It’s great!” “Did you thank him?” “No, I got busy with other things and forgot.”

Leper # 2: “Did I thank him? No, why should I do that? That’s his job, healing people. He’s a prophet or something, you know. Why would I thank him for what he’s supposed to do?”

Leper # 3: “Thank him?!? No, there wasn’t anything to it. All he did was say, ‘be clean,’ and that was it. No big deal.”

Leper # 4: “No, I did not thank him. Caleb went back to thank him. I figured that would do.”

Leper # 5: “No, I never say thanks. I consider it degrading to thank someone. If all someone wants is ‘thank you,’ let him keep his ol’ healing!”

Leper # 6: “Thanks? You’ve got to be kidding! I had to get down to the temple before it closed. I didn’t have time to go back and thank him!”

Leper # 7: “No, it completely slipped my mind. Oh well, I’m sure everyone else thanked him.”

Leper # 8: “No, I know I should have and if I happen to see him again, I’ll do just that!”

Leper # 9: “No, he wouldn’t want to be thanked. It was the Christ, the Messiah, so He doesn’t expect a thank you.”

But, brothers and sisters, one leper did return and thank Jesus (we don’t know if his name was Caleb or not). And he was a Samaritan--yes those people hated by the Jews. Jesus praised him and said, "...Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? Were there none found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger?" (Luke 17:17-18). Every day is a day to give thanks and to be grateful for the good and perfect gifts He has given us (Jas. 1:17). Come to think of it, shouldn't we as God's children always have an attitude of gratitude? (Col. 3:17; Eph. 5:20).
