Thoughts from the Preacher

“His Faithfulness”

For the Christian every day is Thanksgiving. Jeremiah was thankful for God’s faithfulness and we should be today as well.

Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed, Because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I hope in Him!"

Lamentations 3:22-24

Aids To Remembrance

Author Unknown

In 1 Corinthians 11:24-25 Paul gave a solemn charge to the church to remember the Lord’s Supper. He said that they were to bring to mind the serious matter of observing this memorial feast. Far too often the real meaning of this part of worship is overlooked or even abused. This article lists some things that will help keep our minds on track as we observe this supper. Please concentrate on each of these things as you partake of this supper commemorating the death, burial and resurrection of our Savior.

As we survey the scenes of Calvary let us observe...

ONE LORD (Eph. 4:5) The word Lord emphasizes “ownership.” We truly have been bought with a price (1 Cor. 6:20). Jesus Himself said that He was “the way; the truth and the life...” (John 14:6). His death gave us life.

TWO THIEVES (Matt. 27:38) Isaiah had prophesied that the Messiah would be “numbered with the transgressors” (Isa. 53:12). The innocent was crucified for the guilty.

THREE CROSSES One cross was of rebellion (Luke 23:39); one was the cross of repentance (Luke 23:40); and the other that held our Lord the cross of redemption (1 Pet. 1:18).

FOUR PARTS OF HIS GARMENT (John 19:23). These men seemed to want a memorial of this event, and of course it was He who was on the cross that should be remembered.

FIVE WOUNDS He was nailed to the cross. Both hands and both feet were held secure by the nails. And then His side was pierced (John 19:34).

SIX HOURS OF SUFFERING (Mark 15:25-34) Six long hours in agony. Hanging there, suspended between heaven and earth, for such a long period of time. There was darkness for three hours and then He died (Matt. 27:45).

SEVEN SAYINGS (1) “Father forgive them...” (Luke 23:34); (2) “...thou shalt be with me...” (Luke 23:43); (3) “Woman behold thy son...” (John 19:26- 27); (4) “I thirst.” (John 19:28); (5) “My God, my God why hast thou forsaken me?” (Matt. 27:46). (6) “It is finished...” (John 19:30); (7) “Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.” (Luke 23:46)
