Thoughts from the Preacher

“Undefeated”

God has never known defeat.

He never becomes exhausted.

He never gives up.

He never walks away.

He never becomes overwhelmed.

He continues to uplift the downtrodden.

He continues rescuing the lost

He continues cleansing the filthy.

He continues to be awesome.

God NEVER quits, God always wins.

Brethren, stay on the winning team!

In Pursuit of Faith

Part 2 of 2

FAITH’S OBJECT

The writer continues in Hebrews 11:6: “must believe that he is . . .”

The Bible does not begin with an apologetic preface defending God’s existence (Genesis). He is the grand “Given” of the cosmos.

Moses simply tells us He is the Creator of all that is (1:1). What we see in the physical world. This world had to start with something. Is it more reasonable to commence with a tiny, lifeless speck or a powerful, self-existent God? The very sky above us screams, “There is a God up here” (Psalm 19:1).

A young skeptic said to an elderly lady, “I once believed in God, but since studying science I am convinced that God is an empty word.”

The lady replied, “Well, I have not studied science, but since you have, maybe you can tell me from whence came this egg.”

“Why, of course, from the hen,” was the reply.

“And where did the hen come from?”

“Why, the egg.”

“And perhaps,” she said, “you can tell me which existed first.”

“The hen, of course,” rejoined the young man.

“You mean that a hen existed without having come from an egg?”

“Oh, no,” he said, “I should have said the egg was first.”

“Then you mean that an egg existed without having come from a hen?”

He exclaimed, “You’ve got me all mixed up.”

She drove home her point: “Young man, since you cannot explain the existence of even a hen or an egg without God, you cannot expect me to believe that you can explain the existence of the whole world without Him.”

We must believe that God is:

Eternal. He is “from everlasting to everlasting” (Psalm 90:2). There has never been a time when God was not, nor will there ever be a time when He is not.
